CLOSING HOUR FOR SALOONS

Fixed by Common Council at Eleven O'clock-Boswell Avenue Fire House Sold-Breed Elm in Bad Condition and May Be Taken Down-Reports and Petitions

All the members of the court of common council were present Monday evening for the October meeting, Mayor Lippitt presiding. The reading of the journal was omitted.

The hearing on the grade for a new walk on the northerly side of Lincoln avenue from Uncas to Washington street, was opened and the grade as proposed was approved.

The monthly report of the street department showed the expenditure of $2,503.40 including for Crescent street sewer $143.65 and Sachem street work $239.96. The report was accepted.

139.96. The report was accepted. Chief John Murphy of the police force presented his quarterly report which was accepted.

Joseph Callahan asked to have the work of laying the curb in Slater avenue on the north side stopped and that portion which is now laid be taken up as it will cause a great damage to his property. It was referred to the public works committee.

To Build Sewers. The public works committee reported that an appropriation of $1,500 for the Talman street sewer had been made and the public works committee was appointed to build the sewer.
The same committee reported that $4,000 had been appropriated for the sewer in Roath from Cliff to North Main streets and the same committee was authorized to build the sewer. On the petition of John J. Linsley, the public works committee recom-mended a new grade on the west side of Broadway from Slater avenue to Broad street, and as he was the only one interested and favors the grade, Mr. Linsky's petition for the priv-liege of laying out a forty-foot high-way across the Slater property, which he owns, was approved but it will not become a public highway until the road has been properly approved.

Mr. Linsky's petition for a grade of the will conduct the first success.

It was voted that the deed to the walk and gutter in Slater avenue on the north side has been investigated b- the public works committee and a grade was recommended and the hearing on it was set for Novem-ber 1 at 8 o'clock.

The committee appointed by Mayor Lippitt to draft resolution of thanks to the city of Waterbury for the services of their policemen on the anni-versary celebration made their report thanking the city for its great generosity, and also request The Bulletin to incorporate the resolutions in the anniversary book which it is to publish on the celebration. The report was accepted

Closing Hour.

Mrs. S. H. Mead, corresponding secretary of the W. C. T. U., presented a communication from that organization as the result of a vote during the afternoon, asking that the council reulre the saloons to close, according to he state law, at ten o'clock, and that be not allowed to remain open intil eleven.

A resolution which had been pre-sented, asking that the hour of elevensented, asking that the hour of eleven be the hour fixed for the closing of the saloons in the city was read, this being the hour fixed by the town. Alderman Robin-son moved the passage of the resolu-tion, and after it had been seconded, stated that in other cities of the state the closing hour has been fixed at eleven. The board of police commissioners believe that it is in the interests of public safety to have the closing hour eleven. At ten o'clock up to eleven there are many women on the street, servant girls are going home and people are leaving the the-

was not known it was coming up to-night they were not present. No one moved for such action and the resolution before the council was put and there were twelve ballots cast, ten being for the eleven o'clock closing hour and two opposed. It was declar-ed that the hour of closing should be with power.

Tree Warden Fellows reported that the elm in Washington square is decayed and that a limb recently fell. He does not feel like taking it down because of its historic value, but recommended that a survey be made of it and if found decayed it should be removed. The tree warden and the public works committee were appointed to make the survey.

A communication from the board water commissioners stated that the following bills for work on the Mead-ow brook dam had been approved and the approval of the council was ask ed: William Blackburn $93; Chandle & Palmer $32.75; H. B. Cruttenden $125; T. J. Dodd $1,511.89; T. J. Dodd, extra, $99. The bills were approved.
